TO DEALERS IN WOVEN SKIRTS .-

New York, Oct. 5, 1859.

Mesers. S. H. Dougserv and others:
Sirs: As there are two methods of producing the Skirt patented to you pesterday, it may be of service definitely to explain the scope of your claim. In one method the hosps are inserted while the tapes are in the learn, and during the process of manufacturing the same; it the other method the tapes are manufacturing the arms; it the other method the tapes are manufactured in a condition ready to receive the hoops, and the latter are inserted afterward. Skirts produced by either of these methods are covered by your patent, and any parties making or selling the same are liable to you for damages for all made or sold after this date.

Very respectfully.

All the improvements that comfort and convenience have suggested, have been introduced.

Every precaution has been taken, during construction, to secure the positive safety of greats from the dangers of configuration.
Sub-division double brick walls extend from the rock foundation to the roof. All of the floors are double, and are separated by a layer of cement, making the entire structure fire-proof.

Among other important improvements, in addition to the usual takenays, a VERTICAL RAILWAY is nearly completed, to convey quests from the first to the upper floors, upon a plan which admits of no possibility of accident.

Lofty, spacious and continuous coordiors, forming a promenade of eight hundred feet upon each of the six stories, give light and air in the highest degree to every spaciment.

Alberal space has been appropriated to public Drawing-Rooms and Pariors, connecting which and the Dinin-Rooms there is a grand fromenade Hall. Suites of spacious Pariors, Chambers and Dresbirs-Rooms, with all the modern occaveniences, have been especially designed for the comfort of families, traveling patties and sing gentlemen.

An Euchanse, containing the journals of the day, and all the converiences for commercial intercourse and business, has been added to the many other features of the Hotel, and there is a Telegraph Office counceting with all parts of the country.

The Furniture, and every article of use in the establishment, have been expressly designed and manufactured for the FIFTHAVENUE HOTEL.

All communications for apartments, or upon any business conpreced with the house, please direct to FIFTH-AVENUE

AVENUE HOTEL.

All communications for spartments, or upon any business connected with the house, please direct to FIFTH-AVENUE HOTEL, in order to insure immediate attention.

The suttre organization of this Hotel has been under the direction of Mr. PARAN STEVENS, proprietor of the Revere and Tremont Houses in Boston, and Battle and Point Clear Houses in Mobile, and it will be conducted by PARAN STEVENS,
